

Geodesy/Topography/Cadastr/GIS Engineer

Description

Our company, active in the field of Natural Gas and Energy, is looking for a surveyor or engineer with experience in Surveying, Cadastr and GIS to join our dynamic team. If you are a responsible person, eager and open to new challenges, with a strong desire to learn and achieve, we expect you to apply.

Responsibilities

Assistance in the company's construction sites, regarding geodetic, topographical, cadastral and GIS works

Collection and processing of geodetic and topographical data

Participation in the creation of field-specific plans, maps and documentation

Using CAD software to create and modify technical drawings

Collaboration with the technical team and other departments to ensure the quality and compliance of the projects

Qualifications

Minimum experience of 1 year in the field of Geodesy, Topography, Cadastr or GIS

Graduated university studies in a relevant technical profile

Solid knowledge of CAD software

Minimum category B driver's license

Knowledge of the English language is an advantage

Availability for travel, including outside the country

Job Benefits

A motivating salary, related to the time and involvement in the performance of work tasks

Service car

Accommodation and per diem during travel

Opportunities for professional development and advancement within the company

Contacts

To apply, please send your updated CV and cover letter to the email address in the advertisement. We will only contact candidates selected for interview.

Join our team and contribute to the development of our projects in the field of Natural Gas and Energy!

Hiring organization

Cis Gaz

Employment Type

Full-time

Job Location

Romania

Date posted

July 20, 2023

